Preserving the history and heritage of the Pontian Greeks

100th Commemoration of The Great Catastrophe

SUNDAY, APRIL 7, 1:00 - 4:00 PM

Illinois Holocaust Museum | 9603 Woods Drive, Skokie, 60077

Few today know of one of the first genocides of the twentieth century committed against the Greeks of the Black Sea, Pontos, and Asia Minor. Rooted in ethnic and religious intolerance against Christian minorities, Ottoman Turkey committed brutal atrocities against its Greek population between 1913 and 1923.

We invite you to a ground-breaking symposium featuring distinguished scholars as they reflect upon history, a legacy of loss, remembrance, and the diaspora experience today.

In Conversation With:

Theodosios Kyriakidis, Department of History and Archeology, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki

Fatma Müge Göçek, Professor of Sociology and Women's Studies, University of Michigan
