Riveting political drama about the tense negotiations between Greece's finance minister and the EU.

DEFUNCT

Directed by Zacharias Mavroeidis

Winner, Audience Award, Best Picture, Thessaloniki International Film Festival, 2019.

A young Greek millennial discovers a family secret that will forever change his outlook on life.

FANTASIA

Directed by Alexis Kardaras

Musical drama follows a young singer's rise to stardom. Set during the 1990s club scene.

JAMAICA

Directed by Andreas Morfonios

Bittersweet comedy about the power of brotherly love, starring Spiros Papadopoulos and Fanis Mouratidis.

MADALENA

Directed by Dinos Dimopoulos

In this beloved classic comedy, a young woman fights tradition--and the odds--when she takes control of her late father's fishing boat in order to support her siblings.

MELTEM

Directed by Basile Doganis

A young woman travels to Lesbos to sell her mother's house and put her Greek past behind her until a chance encounter with a Syrian refugee changes things.

NOT TO BE UNPLEASANT BUT WE NEED TO HAVE A SERIOUS TALK

Directed by Giorgos Georgopoulos

This droll black comedy follows a young womanizer tracking down his former partners. Best Screenplay, Hellenic Film Academy Award 2020 | Best Greek Film, Thessaloniki International Film Festival 2019.

SIEGE ON LIPERTI STREET

Directed by Stavros Pamballis

In the divided city of Nicosia, a desperate father fights to keep his family's home from being repossessed. Winner of five Best Picture awards, including coveted FIPRESCI Prize (International Federation of Film Critics) | Thessaloniki International Film Festival 2019.

A SIMPLE MAN

Directed by Tassos Gerakinis

A vintner tries to protect his headstrong daughter from a dangerous fugitive who is holding them hostage.

ZIZOTEK

Directed by Vardis Marinakis

An abandoned young boy takes refuge in the isolated cabin of a mute loner, gradually forming a family. Variety calls it "riveting", "moving and subtly bewitching." Winner of Best Cinematography, Hellenic Film Academy Award 2020.
