

Polly Samson in conversation

Tuesday 27 October 2020, 7pm
Zoom Webinar

Author Polly Samson will be in conversation with John Kittmer about her latest novel A Theatre for Dreamers (Bloomsbury 2020), set in the sixties on the Greek island of Hydra, where a circle of writers, painters and musicians live, ruled over by Charmian Clift and George Johnston, troubled queen and king of bohemia. Within this circle a love triangle forms between writer Axel Jensen, his wife Marianne Ihlen and a young Canadian poet named Leonard Cohen. 'A spellbinding novel about utopian dreams and innocence lost.'

Polly Samson is the author of two short story collections and three novels. Her work has been shortlisted for numerous prizes, translated into several languages and dramatised on BBC Radio 4. Her novel The Kindness was named Book of the Year by The Times and Observer. She is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature.

The event is open to members of the League and any who support our aims. It will take place on Zoom webinar. To reserve your place and receive access details, please register in advance on: https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_hGlddqq8QBkwm_2AReHSUA.
