THE LIGHT THAT BURNS US

Jazra Khaleed

Edited by Karen Van Dyck

Multiple Translators

“[Jazra Khaleed] stands up to fascism by writing and performing Greek-language poetry that is unmatched in technical bravura, emotional depth, and political urgency. He performs his poetry at a lightning clip — so fast the Nazis can barely keep up, let alone talk back — a hip-hop emcee in a fever.”

—Max Ritvo, LA Review of Books

“...an explosive cadence... Khaleed’s sentiment toward the would-be aesthetes seems clear: ‘Fuck off, flower poets.’”

—David Wallace, The New Yorker

“...agitated and delirious and necessary.”

—Lotte L.S., Mute
